

All New Lessons for the 2009/2010 School Year!

Animals in Literature and Mythology

Stories about animals have been with us for centuries. In this lesson we look at different literary examples of how our attitudes towards animals have changed over time.

Stereotype Busters: Animals and Ethnicities

Students use in-class research to determine the accuracy of animal stereotypes and talk about why stereotyping is bad for both people and animals.

Protect the Planet, Protect the Critters

Students learn about our effect on animal habitats and create a list of things they can do to help.